- To pay school fees by due date
- To support their children in their academic endeavours by making time for homework and school projects
- To avoid requests for leave for children during term time, except in the case of an emergency

- To support their children in their extramural endeavours by supporting them at sporting events, and other activities.
- To encourage their children to get involved in all school activities and supporting them when necessary

Pupil Code Of Conduct

The core of the Ridgeway Preparatory School, code of conduct for pupils is that we believe in encouraging learners to behave in a way, which does not interfere with the rights of others. These basic rights are those contained in the United Nations Declaration of Children's Rights and other rights generally recognized as being basic human rights :

While at school, learners should

- Behave in a way which brings credit to themselves and their family, the school and the community, by doing things like being kind and helpful, being polite, having good manners, greeting teachers, fellow learners, parents and visitors, being honest, standing up and looking at adults when they address them, stop and listen when a teacher calls, being neat and looking after their clothes and trying to be a good advertisement for the school at all times.
- Behave in a sensible way, which does not endanger themselves or others.
- Behave in a way, which respects the basic rights of others by doing things such as treating others with respect and respecting the right of others to be different.
- Behave in a way, which is designed to look after the environment, the school and the property and equipment, including their own.
Behave in a way which ensures the smooth running of the school and which ensures that the learner makes the most of their right to learning. This means that, in general the learner shall behave appropriately.

If you do not comply with the Code of Conduct, disciplinary measures will be taken.

I declare that I have read and accept the Code of Conduct for parents and pupils.
